Announcements for April 6

- The CS Department is having a pizza lunch tomorrow to talk about graduate school opportunities in Computer Science. Though this is primarily aimed at declared majors, if any of you are thinking that far ahead you would be welcome to attend. If you are going to eat our pizza you need to tell Jackie, our secretary, by Monday.