Announcements for December 10, 2014

- Grades for Labs 1-7 have all been mailed out and also posted on Blackboard. If you have issues with the grades that were mailed out, let me know. If the grades you see on Blackboard aren’t what you expect, let me know. Being more fallible than a computer (But also much cuter. And taller.), I may have miscopied something.

- Our class doesn’t show up on the final schedule (sigh....) but our final exam is scheduled in our regular classroom (King 101) at 9AM on Wednesday, December 17.
